

National Instrument 58-101
Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices

Part One
Definitions and Application

1.1 Definitions – In this Instrument,

“AIF” has the same meaning as in National Instrument 51-102 Continuous Disclosure Obligations;

“CEO” means a chief executive officer;

“code” means a code of business conduct and ethics;

“executive officer” has the same meaning as in National Instrument 51-102 Continuous Disclosure Obligations;

“marketplace” has the same meaning as in National Instrument 21-101 Marketplace Operation;

“MD&A” has the same meaning as in National Instrument 51-102 Continuous Disclosure Obligations;

“SEDAR” has the same meaning as in National Instrument 13-101 System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval (SEDAR);

“U.S. marketplace” means an exchange registered as a ‘national securities exchange’ under section 6 of the 1934 Act, or the Nasdaq Stock Market;

“venture issuer” means an issuer that does not have any of its securities listed or quoted on any of the Toronto Stock Exchange, a U.S. marketplace, or a marketplace outside of Canada and the United States of America.

1.2 Meaning of Independence –

(1) Except in British Columbia, a director is independent if he or she would be independent within the meaning of section 1.4 of Multilateral Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees.

(2) In British Columbia, a director is independent

(a) unless a reasonable person with knowledge of all the relevant circumstances would conclude that the director is in fact not independent of management or of any significant shareholder, or

(b) if the issuer is a reporting issuer in a jurisdiction other than British Columbia, and the director is independent under subsection (1).

1.3 Application – This Instrument applies to a reporting issuer other than:

- (a) an investment fund or issuer of asset-backed securities, as defined in National Instrument 51-102;
- (b) a designated foreign issuer or SEC foreign issuer, as defined in National Instrument 71-102 Continuous Disclosure and Other Exemptions Relating to Foreign Issuers;
- (c) a credit support issuer or exchangeable security issuer that is exempt under Part 13 of National Instrument 51-102; and
- (d) an issuer that is a wholly-owned subsidiary of another entity, if
 - (i) the issuer does not have equity securities (other than non-convertible, non-participating preferred securities) trading on a marketplace, and
 - (ii) the entity that owns the issuer is
 - (A) subject to the requirements of this Instrument, or
 - (B) an issuer that (1) has securities listed or quoted on a U.S. marketplace and (2) is in compliance with the corporate governance requirements of that U.S. marketplace.

Part Two Disclosure and Filing Requirements

2.1 Required Disclosure –

- (1) If management of an issuer, other than a venture issuer, solicits proxies from the security holders of the issuer for the purpose of electing directors to the issuer's board of directors, the issuer must include in its management information circular the disclosure required by Form 58-101F1.
- (2) An issuer, other than a venture issuer, that is not required to send a management information circular to its security holders must provide the disclosure required by Form 58-101F1 in its AIF.

2.2 Venture Issuers –

- (1) If management of a venture issuer solicits proxies from the security holders of the venture issuer for the purpose of electing directors to the issuer's board of directors, the venture issuer must include in its management information circular the disclosure required by Form 58-101F2.

- (2) A venture issuer that is not required to send a management information circular to its security holders must provide the disclosure required by Form 58-101F2 in its AIF or annual MD&A.

2.3 Filing of Code – If an issuer has adopted or amended a written code, the issuer must file a copy of the code or amendment on SEDAR no later than the date on which the issuer's next financial statements must be filed, unless a copy of the code or amendment has been previously filed.

Part Three Exemptions and Effective Date

3.1 Exemptions –

- (1) The securities regulatory authority or regulator may grant an exemption from this rule, in whole or in part, subject to any conditions or restrictions imposed in the exemption.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), in Ontario, only the regulator may grant an exemption.

3.2 Effective Date – This Instrument comes into force on ●.

Form 58-101F1
Corporate Governance Disclosure

1. Board of Directors —

- (a) Disclose the identity of directors who are independent.
- (b) Disclose the identity of directors who are not independent, and describe the basis for that determination.
- (c) Disclose whether or not a majority of directors are independent. If a majority of directors are not independent, describe what the board of directors (the board) does to facilitate its exercise of independent judgement in carrying out its responsibilities.
- (d) If a director is presently a director of any other issuer that is a reporting issuer (or the equivalent) in a jurisdiction or a foreign jurisdiction, identify both the director and the other issuer.
- (e) Disclose whether or not the independent directors hold regularly scheduled meetings at which members of management are not in attendance. If the independent directors hold such meetings, disclose the number of meetings held during the preceding 12 months. If the independent directors do not hold such meetings, describe what the board does to facilitate open and candid discussion among its independent directors.
- (f) Disclose whether or not the chair of the board is an independent director. If the board has a chair or lead director who is an independent director, disclose the identity of the independent chair or lead director, and describe his or her role and responsibilities. If the board has neither a chair that is independent nor a lead director that is independent, describe what the board does to provide leadership for its independent directors.

2. Board Mandate — Disclose the text of the board's written mandate. If the board does not have a written mandate, describe how the board delineates its role and responsibilities.

3. Position Descriptions —

- (a) Disclose whether or not the board has developed written position descriptions for the chair and the chair of each board committee. If the board has not developed written position descriptions for the chair and/or the chair of each board committee, briefly describe how the board delineates the role and responsibilities of each such position.
- (b) Disclose whether or not the board and CEO have developed a written position description for the CEO. If the board and CEO have not developed such a position description, briefly describe how the board delineates the role and responsibilities of the CEO.

4. Orientation and Continuing Education —

- (a) Briefly describe what measures the board takes to orient new directors regarding
 - (i) the role of the board, its committees and its directors, and
 - (ii) the nature and operation of the issuer's business.
- (b) Briefly describe what measures, if any, the board takes to provide continuing education for its directors. If the board does not provide continuing education, describe how the board ensures that its directors maintain the skill and knowledge necessary for them to meet their obligations as directors.

5. Ethical Business Conduct —

- (a) Disclose whether or not the board has adopted a written code for its directors, officers and employees. If the board has adopted a written code:
 - (i) disclose how an interested party may obtain a copy of the written code;
 - (ii) describe how the board monitors compliance with its code, or if the board does not monitor compliance, explain whether and how the board ensures compliance with its code; and
 - (iii) provide a cross-reference to any material change report(s) filed within the preceding 12 months that pertains to any conduct of a director or executive officer that constitutes a departure from the code.
- (b) Describe any steps the board takes to ensure directors exercise independent judgement in considering transactions and agreements in respect of which a director or executive officer has a material interest.
- (c) Describe any other steps the board takes to encourage and promote a culture of ethical business conduct.

6. Nomination of Directors —

- (a) Describe the process by which the board identifies new candidates for board nomination.
- (b) Disclose whether or not the board has a nominating committee composed entirely of independent directors. If the board does not have a nominating committee composed entirely of independent directors, describe what steps the board takes to encourage an objective nomination process.

- (c) If the board has a nominating committee, describe the responsibilities, powers and operation of the nominating committee.

7. Compensation —

- (a) Describe the process by which the board determines the compensation for your company's directors and officers.
- (b) Disclose whether or not the board has a compensation committee composed entirely of independent directors. If the board does not have a compensation committee composed entirely of independent directors, describe what steps the board takes to ensure an objective process for determining such compensation.
- (c) If the board has a compensation committee, describe the responsibilities, powers and operation of the compensation committee.

8. Other Board Committees — If the board has standing committees other than the audit, compensation and nominating committees, identify the committees and describe their function.

9. Assessments — Disclose whether or not the board, its committees and individual directors are regularly assessed with respect to their effectiveness and contribution. If assessments are regularly conducted, describe the process used for the assessments. If assessments are not regularly conducted, describe how the board satisfies itself that it, its committees, and individual directors are performing effectively.

INSTRUCTION:

- (1) References to corporate governance practices in this Form are to the guidelines included in National Policy 58-201 Corporate Governance Guidelines.
- (2) This Form applies to both corporate and non-corporate entities. Reference to a particular corporate characteristic, such as a board, includes any equivalent characteristic of a non-corporate entity.

Income trust issuers should provide disclosure in a manner which recognizes that certain functions of a corporate issuer, its board and its management may be performed by any or all of the trustees, the board or management of a subsidiary of the trust, or the board, management or employees of a management company. In the case of an income trust, references to "the issuer" refer to both the trust and any underlying entities, including the operating entity.
